

Awards and Honors

- Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington, 2013-2014
One of the best small charities in the Greater Washington region
- WAMMIE for Best Choral Group, 2013, 2009, 2008, 2000, 1999
- Mayor's Arts Award, Outstanding Contribution to Arts Education, 2008
- WAMMIE for Best Classical Recording, 2006
Celebrating Sacred Rhythms
- Award for Excellence in Non-Profit Management, The Washington Post, 2002
First arts organization to receive this award
- 2001 National ASCAP Award for Adventuresome Programming for the 1999-2000
Presented at the 2001 Chorus America Conference in Toronto
- Grammy Award for Best Classical Album, 1996
John Corigliano's Of Rage and Remembrance
Awarded to the National Symphony Orchestra, Leonard Slatkin, conductor with certificates to the men of The Choral Arts Society of Washington and Oratorio Society
- Cultural Alliance of Greater Washington, Business Volunteers for the Arts Award, 1996
- Mayor's Arts Award, Excellence in Artistic Discipline, 1994
- Standout Performance, The Washington Post, 1981
Mahler's Symphony No. 8 with the National Symphony Orchestra and Cathedral Choral
Society under the direction of Paul Callaway
- Best Concert of the Year, The Washington Post, 1980
Rachmaninoff's Vespers under the direction of Mstislav Rostropovich
- Best Concert of the Year, The Washington Post, 1979
Britten's War Requiem with the National Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Mstislav Rostropovich